

Classroom Behavior Chart:

My philosophy is to instill the basic skills needed to foster and create a safe learning environment while encouraging responsibility. I will also hold students accountable for maintaining appropriate behaviors and following class rules. Each day all students start on green and move up or down on the scale throughout the day. "Second chances" are always encouraged when change and actions are displayed (Christ-like). Students have an opportunity not only to demonstrate great actions and work, but can also strive to be outstanding! When a student reaches this level they will receive a prize of their choice from the class treasure box.

The system goes as follows;
